

Webinar

"Preparing HEIs in Southeastern Europe to support Researchers at Risk"

Wednesday 22 January 2025,
11.00-12.00 CET (12.00-13.00 EET)

The webinar is addressed to administrative staff as well as interested academics of Universities in Southeastern Europe. It aims to raise their awareness and preparedness on hosting Scholars at Risk by sharing good practices and discussing possible challenges and appropriate administrative answers. The support of all European HEIs including those in South East Europe is even more needed as the numbers of at-risk scholars keep rising globally.
